

CFA Society Toronto's Ethics Challenge

Ted Stephenson, MBA, CPA, CMA, CFA, CFP

February 19, 2019

Event Overview

CFA Society Toronto's Ethics Challenge is designed to increase student's awareness of the ethical dilemmas they may face as investment management professionals.

After a preliminary case round, the top four scoring teams were given a competition case to analyze and present their analysis and recommendations, to a panel of judges. Teams were evaluated by a panel of industry professionals selected by CFA Society Toronto.

The University of Ottawa won the local level in Toronto on February 14, 2019 and will advance to the CFA Societies Canada Ethics Challenge held in Calgary in May 2019.

PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS:

1. Ted Rogers School of Management, Ryerson University
- 2. School of Accounting & Finance, George Brown College
3. Smith School of Business, Queen's University
4. Telfer School of Management, University of Ottawa

Prof. Ted Stephenson, Diego Zabala, Isaac Traore, Geri Haxhiu

University of Ottawa (Won)

&

George Brown
College

They only announce the winning team...

Ethics Challenge: Web Links

CFA Societies Canada

CFA Society Toronto